On the book of aphorisms "Clepsydra", by Georgi Panov

Inner Mirror

In such occasions of appearance, very often I, too, as an author, ask myself whether the intellectual level itself is a sufficient motive for a creative act and for a generalization, which, among other things, understands unification of other values articulated and precised in the process itself of the creation, or whether that process of creative interpretation represents a sum of more things, intergrated in the intergramme of every individual, particularly.

In this case, which is the subject of my consideration and evaluation, the question is not only about the intellectual dimension, but also about the creativeness which defines and directs the author's energy in a creative process emphasized in a literary product. In other words, the author, connecting the intellectual capacity with the writing one, makes a mathematical totality of a mature and of a diverse interpreter of conditions, who is also prepared for other genre generalizations, especially in the satire, anagram, grotesque, and why not in the artistic prose!...

This conclusion of mine is also based on my intellectual and creative capacity as an author with a long writing experience and, of course, on the basis of the consideration of his first book of aphorisms "Spiritual Aphorisms", in which, by the way, spontaneously and without an imposed aggressiveness he announced his offensive of a continuous determination in the world of aphorisms.

If the aphorisms are a special literary genre, which requires from the author a conciseness, a deep thought and a philosophical articulation of the idea in the message, then I agree completely that Georgi Panov, in the second manuscript "Clepsydra", with a visible ability, unites all his creative components in a connection of values which deserve a special attention and elaboration.

This, because, from every word of this sympathetic booklet are sprung up: a precise didactics, a sharp sensibility and a mild irony, which can sting and make you laugh, but also which criticizes some definite conditions of the society, which are chronicles or incidental. His inner mirror, in which are refracted many black and white worlds, gives an original picture of a two-dimensional projection and of interpretations.

This time, the author directs his aphoristic pen in "Clepsydra" in two places: in the sphere of economy with all its specifics, defaults and lacks in whose centre is the human subject and in the second, the free theme in which he notices, sees, caricatures and denies.

In fact in the two places, Georgi Panov is moderate, sometimes vulgar and deeply traditional, without a thread on the tongue, with a fresh distillation and without intrusion, which make the aphorisms be readable, subtle and clear in thought, whose endings generalize morals.

In fact, his aphorisms as a sharp sand clock, cautiously determine the time and each one particularly and all of them together make a logical whole, operationalized in the invisible or less visible things which exist in every surrounding and in every place.

Placed in the author's laboratory of experimenting, those in appearance small things receive other dimensions, meanings and seemy sides, because he makes amalgams and mixtures of the valorized values from them.

Comparing this booklet with the previous one of this gifted author, one can notice a finer and a more qualitative component in the sense of creative maturity and of comprehension of the things about which he expresses himself with a more sophisticated expression and imagination.

In fact, referred to this is the multitude of aphorisms, placed between the cover pages of this booklet which during its reading engages and doesn't leave you indifferent because each one stings tickles, makes everyone laugh and teaches and finally enriches with a lot of pearls of wisdom.

CHAPTER-1

Sphere Economy

Instead of using a needle and thread, you'd better patch the life's holes with your money.

Although, apparently, the sun is gratis, at the end we pay it with our life.

The British cover the lack of the sun with gin and tea.

Everything else in the marriage, except the fucking, isn't a biological process.

The trade deficit can't be covered with hyperproduction of watermelons.

Because of the high specific weight, the truth sinks most quickly in every market economy.

How can we have a good trade exchange when our countries are with different intelligence.

The bad lover is always a good host and vice versa.

What matters democracy to an unemployed and economically enslaved intellectual?

Both the lie and the flowers join the protocols faithfully. The interesting thing is only that: the more impressive they are, the more artificial they are.

Interesting, the more secondary roads you discover, the farther you are from the main road.

The currency reserves of the state increase in vain when the national income per citizen (per capita) decreases.

One comes out of the circle of poverty hard because of the strong stream.

When you are healthy, you avoid the sick. But, when you are sick, you can't only avoid the hospitals.

The only proof of poverty of the poor is the empty pocket.

The firm proofs require a soft bed.

Each firm economy requires a soft inflation and vice versa.

If you want to grow poor fast then start spending the other people's money.

Whenever you go to the end, a new beginning awaits for you.

The faster you spend your words and time, the faster you grow old.

In order to make Macedonian oasis of peace, the Albanians have decided to devastate it!

What's the use of such a body when she has an empty head?

What an absurdity: the healthy gamble with the health,
while the sick die (cry) for it!

What they have, you don't have it. But, you possess that they don't have and therefore they have subjugated you!

To those who have lost their memory, they have already sung the song of the life.

The country throws the traitors of the people on the surface!

Those who are strong at the start can never make a finish with the others.

Why so many musicians when there are no soloist!

If Eva took Adam away from paradise, then he should take her back marthyred.

The rows are only for the principled. All the others ignore them.

One swims hardest against the strong waves of the inflation!

The faster the technological process, the faster the people's masses grow poor!

He gives councils in vain when he isn't smart enough for himself!

As the snow melts, so the youth transforms itself into senility!

That one who attained a deep senility enjoys the death as the cock does with the day-break!

The less medicines the doctor prescribes, the longer the life of the patient!

Why are you so mean with the smile and friendliness when they are free of charge.

How many human sacrifices are necessary to overcome the animal in the man!

If our politicians also ate millet like the birds, it would be clearer to me why they so often took off and landed.

In life as well as in football the goals count, not the chances.

When the money turns slowly in the economy and in the banks, then the lies are overturned too fast among the people.

Don't despair because of the poverty, but because of the lack of perspective.

When you've lost the hope, then the God raised hands from you.

When you've missed a lot of chances, then don't expect a good result of the match.

Don't challenge the fate on duel, because you have already in advance lost the luck of life.

The fortune and the misfortune shouldn't be invited in life. They are apostles of the life and of the death.

When the wife can't "eat" from the pocket, then she starts to "eat" the liver.

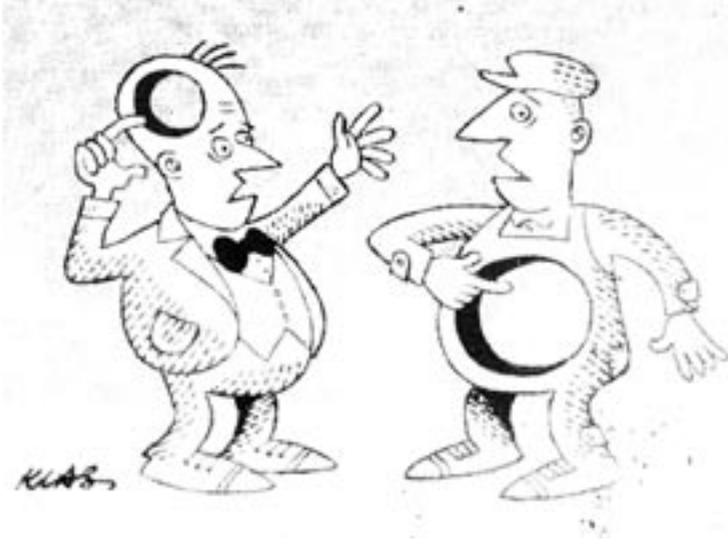

In life in the critical moments we usually call for help those who bury us.

Only the unfaithful is ready to bury you from "thankfulness" when you have saved his life.

Only those who can't live in peace, make war during all their lives.

Those, whom the life has marginalized in the time of peace, place themselves in the centre of the war.

When the lover has replaced the wife, look for the reason for that with the latter.

Unlike the negative spirit, which destroys, degrades and ruins everything in front of it (in the end it ruins itself), the positive spirit always creates, develops and is full of initiative and admiration.

When those, who got used to change their partners fast, satiated themselves apparently, then very quickly they change them, too.

One can never realize good health, happiness and welfare without an adequate balance of the personality between the spiritual and material extremity.

What maintained the Macedonian through the centuries?
Besides the strong faith, culture (the first art of writing and reading among the Slavs), the original and rich folklore, the strong persistence and faith in the future, too.

The faster you make decisions, the slower you will arrive at the aim.

The power is always in a right proportion with the interests of those who got (the power) and inversely proportional with the interests of the voters (the people).

That one, who didn't accomplish from any reason the given vow, has already transferred it to his successors in testimony.

As a new-born baby doesn't know when and where it will come to the world, so we also don't know when and where we will leave this world. And it is good that it is so.

When you live without money (on credit) health, and love has abandoned you, it remains to you only to climb on the wings of hope in order to be pulled out of the mud (bottom).

Don't consider him as a friend the man to whom you have told the truth, and he has not kept it.

The woman, to whom you have told a secret and she has not kept it, is not worthy to be your lover and vice versa.

If you haven't understood life as a yeast which constantly moves(develops), then it is late to pick up what flew out of it.

Be careful when people tap you on the shoulder! The intention is evident: they want to put you down on earth.

The good example is always stronger than the good word.

The simple fact is always stronger than the dimmed words and fairy tales.

If someone emphasizes that he works in your defence, this still doesn't mean that he will defend you.

The bureaucrat is the most productive when he doesn't work at all.

The one,who intensively works, creates and makes something, has no time for talks.

When the people could not in elections elect their true representatives, then it remains to them only to "elect" and suffer the politicians. (From two evils in the case, the worse is chosen).

Don't try to deny what you have already said. It will be more useful for you to pay attention always to the inexpressed thoughts and words.

In order to buy the youth at a unique price, it is necessary to sell the health and the wisdom at an adequate price.

With the wise and reasonable man, the thought always dominates and precedes the action.

If for a war condition a narrow state summit is needed, then for the peace a wide people's basis is needed.

What an absurdity: While the poor has one wish-how to survive poverty, the rich, besides many other wishes, has the basic wish how to increase the fortune, but on the burden of the poor.

The fast walk means a slow arrival at the aim.

The mild smile and the friendly look disarm even the sharpest look, as well as the coldest heart.

The stormy effusions are a distinction of the youth spirit as is the gurgle a distinction of the young wine.

The majority is due to suffer so that the individual in the capitalism enjoys.

Unlike the bee, the greedy, on his way to welfare and fortune, sacrifices many people instead of himself.

The money as a strange power doesn't know anything about the liberty in decision!

The movement in circle means maintenance of a permanent relation with the centre!

She conquered him with obstinacy and jealousy towards her comrade, but she enslaved herself.

The girl was even ready to suffer, yet she first chose her first victim.

The seducers need neither an army nor weapons in order to enslave a frivolous statesman or a commander-in chief.

The well measured punishment is sometimes better than the best example.

Behind the unshakable will and persistence many hesitations and renuncements are hidden.

You can't at once become successful as well as the child can't at once walk.

She was so beautiful, but not for long. Even the ugly began to make fun of her.

The splendour of glory was so powerful that it darkened his face.

When they separate you from the basis, be sure then that the root will begin to dry.

With a dimmed reason it is impossible to achieve a clear goal.

Both the vulgarity and the friendliness are the product of the education, but only with the well educated and cultural person they are an optimum mixture.

She took the last one not because of something else, but because he was last in the row.

When you haven't used the elementary right to defence against those who with weapons shoot in the democracy, i.e. the Constitution, then that role has been left to the people by you to take you off the scene on the next elections

Instead of using force-let's wisely share the prey, let's try to be modern, and not primitive, the leaders of the parties agreed and signed the frame agreement.

When they put you in the frame, then you can take a "photograph".

Why when all the European constitutions are national-with the frame agreement they impose us a non-national (non-Macedonian) Constitution? I sincerely doubt in their intentions . If their intention had been good, they would have done that with them.

And imagine, without having a referendum, they changed the Constitution. What a "school for democracy"?

It is absurd for a disloyal citizen of the state and of the system if he appeals for his rights as a citizen!

In vain were the victims of heroes and the shed blood through the history if you don't understand in the future the freedom and the territorial integrity as a sacred testimony, an obligation and a responsibility for all the generations of a people.

Before the Constitution and the laws, we should all be the same, but economically we'll never be the same.

In life we should pay attention to those who "represent" themselves as angels they use all the arsenals and weapons of the devil.

It doesn't mean that all those who succeeded are with qualitative professional personal characteristics, some of them used also the quantitative and unprofessional ones.

He used his closest because he calculated well that it is more expensive to try with the more distant.

The true friend is not only invaluable, but also he never says it and he always acts as a friend in order not to lose the confidence.

The flu, unlike love, when you overcome it, you can forget it! The two categories don't differ only in one feature- sometimes they are deadly.

When someone lied to you, he himself isn't aware that he himself became prisoner of his lie.

The sick's only wish is to get well, the prisoner's is to get free, the wise's is not only to know the wisdom, but also to transfer it to the future generations.

The more the stupid tries to show his wisdom that he learned, the more he emphasizes his stupidity!

With the success and the ambition is the same as with the shadow. The more you pursue them, the more and the faster they distance from you and vice versa.

Geese can't be hunted in the fog!

The immobile swallow most of the dust!

You don't know how long neither the senility nor the winter will last.

Even the most expensive medicine can become the cheapest, but only for those who have known it!

When the earth should stop to turn, this would of course happen to us with the circulation of the money and of the capital.

The iron is most easily shaped when it attains the point of incandescence.

When the blind should see in Macedonia he would surely want it to happen in some other country.

He was in good relation with everybody except with his people.

If he hadn't led a coward life, he surely wouldn't have perished heroically.

He died as a man because he didn't want to be treated as a statistic number any longer and to lead a prisoner's life.

He couldn't see how his proper people suffers, so he decided to shorten his pains.

Your life has only the useful value when it is in the hands of others, and it lost all the other values automatically.

The one who got enough money in the life isn't aware that he became a prisoner to the one who made it possible for him.

The lie is best sold when it is packed in the most qualitative way, and it crosses all the frontiers most easily when it is best masked.

No enemy can defeat you if you haven't previously given up the victory!

The more you are open, the more you are submitted to the outdoor influences.

The productivity of the prostitutes declines as soon as they increase the price of the cost of the favour.

The domestic politicians are more expensive than the imported ones because they have big fixed expenses.

When the price of the labour goes down, the expenses of life rise then and vice versa,

In order to be fucked by somebody, it is necessary that somebody undresses you previously.

Although the devil has horns, he still uses his tail more frequently.

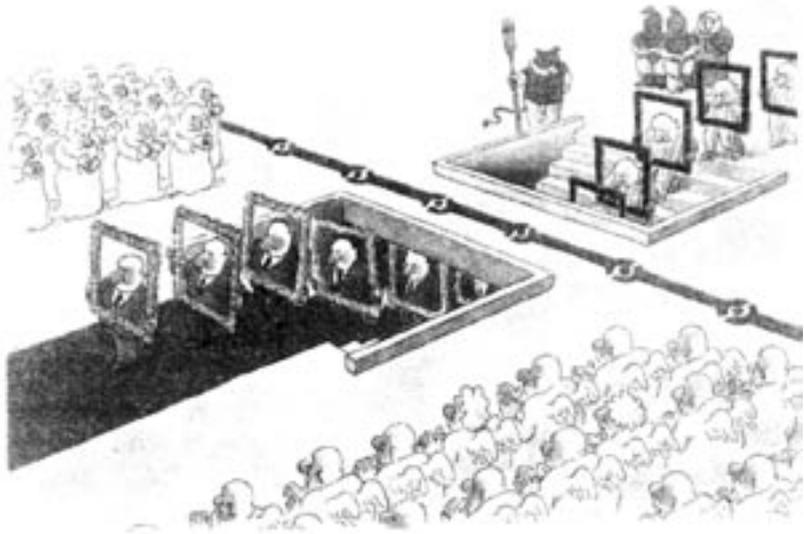

The women are similar to the leeches, But when you suck your money, then you abandon you.

In the sex the skin trembles first, then the mind, and in the end your sight dims.

If the capital hadn't got enriched constantly, the capitalism would have been a past so far.

FREE THEME

He passed a sentence to himself. He chose the home detention as the mildest punishment for his mistakes.

The politicians know well why they don't walk often among the workers. They simply fear to become workers of bankruptcy procedure, too, unexpectedly!

A satiated dog can bite you, too, let alone a hungry people.

It is easy to the journalists in the country when hundreds of affairs take place in a day.

After you had been undressed to the skin, it is all the same to you who will make you sit in his skirt.

If you yourselves don't please yourselves very often, then why do you expect this from the others?

The judges keep the sword in their hands, but the rope tied with a knot is in the hands of the lawyers.

The moment when you try to stop the time, the probability then of going in a direction which is opposed to the movement of the hands of the clock is the biggest.

The similarity between the young "stallion" and the manager is evident; both are professionals in doing the duty.

The women and the camels are so similar (some of the women even have their name) in the persistence and perseverance; their aim is always different.

We ask ourselves very often why the truth is so slow?
Because simply its legs are amputed!

The small decisions and resolutions are of the greatest importance in life!

All those who think that they escaped from the truth disuaded themselves finally in that when the lies abandoned them.

Everyone, who will try to escape from the nature and from the love, only shortens his life!

As the contrasts attract themselves, so the similarities reject themselves.

What an absurdity: he was the greatest atheist and he wants us to believe him!

When someone injured you deeply, then you shoot in vain directly in his shallow mind!

He worked all his life painstakingly, lived in contraction and he at last understood that he had to live in relaxation and to allow himself some pleasures.

With the money it is the same as with the remedies:when once you become dependent, you can't do without them.
And the more you consume them, the faster you lose your health!

Messrs Bishops, after all Your blunders, do you expect just from the Serbian Ortodox Church to recognize the autonomy of Macedonian Orthodox Church?

Corrupted is that fortune that is built on the misfortune of the others (of the other).

Instead of with modern motorways of a European rank, the inhabitants of the Strumica Region still have the most frequent connection with the world through the Turkish cobble!
